Art. Dobberpuhl Dies of Heart Attack While Hunting

Relatives and friends of Arthur Dobberpuhl were deeply grieved and shocked when it was learned that he had suddenly passed away while hunting pheasants on his farm, southwest of Groton.

When Mr. Dobberpuhl failed to return from his hunting mission at supper time, members of his immediate family became concerned as to his whereabouts. His unoccupied car was found in a field and a group of neighbors and friends, including some from Groton, immediately set out in search of the missing man, and it was not until about 8:00 o'clock p. m., until he was found dead near a dry creek bed, having apparently been the victim of a heart attack.

Funeral services for Mr. Dobberpuhl, who was 63 years old at the time of his passing, were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, at St. John's Lutheran church, with the Rev. J. E. Schwarting officiating. Burial was in Groton Union cemetery. Obituary next week.

Arthur William Dobberpuhl

Funeral services for Arthur W. Dobberpuhl of Groton, who passed away from a heart attack, while hunting pheasants on Saturday, Oct. 29th, at the age of 63 years, were conducted on Wednesday at 2:00 o'clock p. m., at St. John's Lutheran church in Groton. The Rev. J. E. Schwarting officiated. Alfred Pactznick was in charge of arrangements and interment was in the family lot in the Groton Union cemetery.

Pallbearers, all nephews of the deceased, were: Bernard Schley, Alex Schley, Edwin Schley, LaWayne Dobberpuhl, Raymond Dobberpuhl and Harlowe Dobberpuhl.

Born in Dodge County, Wisconsin, on Jan. 25, 1886, to William and Johanna Dobberpuhl, Mr. Dobberpuhl came to South Dakota when a small boy settling in Brown County, where he grew to manhood. He was united in marriage on Feb. 7, 1906, with Lillie H. Krueger in the West Hanson Lutheran church. To this union three children were born.

Mr. Dobberpuhl was active in township, school and church affairs, serving as an officer for many years in the church and also on school board and as township supervisor. Retiring from his farm, southeast of Groton, Mr. and Mrs. Dobberpuhl moved to Groton in February, 1948, where they resided until Mr. Dobberpuhl's death.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, Lillie; two daughters, Mrs. Rose Hill, Joliet, Ill., and Mrs. Lorene Hassenpflug, Groton; one son, Walter Dobberpuhl, Streator, Ill., and nieces and nephews.

The departed was a loving husband and father, and kindly neighbor. His high ideals and congenial disposition in his every-day life, gained for him the respect and friendship of all who came in contact with him. The many friends of this highly esteemed man extend sympathy to the family in the loss of their loved one.

Relatives from away attending the last rites were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Donner, Mrs. Emma Spray and son, Armund Enderly, of Reeder, N. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Badten, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Badten, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Shilman, Mrs. Amanda Dobberpuhl, Mrs. Albert Schley, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schley, all of Aberdeen; Mr. and Mrs. Orval Hammer and Mrs. Ida Dobberpuhl of Mellette; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Schley, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schley, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Gerharter, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Dobberpuhl, all of Stratford; Elmer Stolle of Langford; Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hill of Joliet, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dobberpuhl of Streator, Ill.
